SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of Five (5) years. While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the mandatory and standard conditions of supervision outlined in Title 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d). The defendant shall also comply with the following special conditions: 1. The defendant shall satisfactorily participate in a substance abuse treatment program, to include drug testing, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

wit	The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test thin 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter.
	The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
	The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable)
	The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the Probation Office. (Check, if applicable)
	The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the Probation Office. (Check, if applicable)
	The defendant shall participate in an approved rehabilitation program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable)

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page.
